9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY): Household consists of SSI caretaker, her husband who is excluded due to a drug felony and a minor child. Husband just moved into the home, he has a disqualifying felony drug conviction and has a prior OI when he was participating in CalFresh as a single household member. Should the county be adjusting/collecting the overissued CalFresh benefits in this case? The excluded drug felon is not in the household by regulations and collecting the OI is penalizing the minor who was not part of the household at the time of the OI. 402.22 states that an excluded member is included as a member of the household for the purpose of defining a household. 801.4 states that the CWD shall initiate collection against any or all adult members which receive an OI for an IPV, IHE or AE claim. 801-731 stated the CWD shall collect repayments for a claim from a household currently participating in the program 504.44 - An ineligible felon's income would be used in calculating the allotment
10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER: Yes, since the husband, who is a drug felon, is considered part of the CalFresh household the county can adjust/collect an identified OI from the new household.
11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY): The Department agrees with the proposed answer. Per ACIN I-54-09EII, excluded household members including household members having drug/fleeing felon status are responsible for overissuances.
